Car Insurance

Car Insurance

Insured Value

Your car is insured for its retail value which is the average current selling price (on a dealer's floor) as per the TransUnion Auto Dealer's Guide.

- If your car is a Rebuilt (Code 3) vehicle, the insured value is adjusted to 70% of retail value.
- If your car is either stolen, written-off or declared uneconomical to repair, you will be paid the insured value according to the value of your car at the time of the loss. We will establish the insured value based on the retail value at the time of the incident, or alternatively from reputable independent sources, taking into account the age, mileage and condition of your car. Your car will be considered uneconomical to repair when it does not make financial sense to repair it, based on the extent of the damage, taking into consideration the repair costs and insured value of the car. In such cases, the car wreck becomes the Insurer's property.
- The retail value of the car is the maximum amount that will be paid in the event of a valid claim. The following amounts, if applicable, will be deducted when the settlement of the claim is calculated:
 - excess
 - dual insurance
 - depreciation
 - undue cashbacks received (Please refer to the Claims section below for more detail)

The Regular Driver

You confirm that you, as the policyholder, are the regular driver of the insured car. The regular driver is the person who drives the car most often in any given monthly period.

If you are not the regular driver, we advise that the regular driver takes out a policy on the Blink App and insures the car in his/her own name. This is because the Blink App monitors your trips in order to calculate your monthly cashback. If someone else drives the car most often, we would not be able to monitor that person's trips.

You will still be covered (as explained in the rest of this document) if someone else drove your car with your permission, unless that person drove the car more often than you and was in fact the regular driver of the car.

Cover outside of South Africa

Your car is covered in South Africa, Botswana, Lesotho, Malawi, Mozambique, Namibia, Eswatini, Zambia and Zimbabwe, provided the car is registered in South Africa and the address where the car is usually kept, is in the Republic of South Africa.

Cover outside of South Africa is limited to private use, own damage only and for a maximum period of 60 consecutive days.

Scenario: If you are in a car collision while in Eswatini, you will not have cover for the damage you caused to someone else's property.

Car Security

- Where a tracking device is installed in the car, you need to notify the tracking company immediately after becoming aware of a theft/hijacking of your car in order to have theft and hijack cover.
- If we require an additional tracking device to be installed in your car, it would have been confirmed with you in the Blink App and would be noted on your Cover Summary.

03

What's Covered

What's Covered

Comprehensive Cover

The risks that you are covered are noted on your Cover Summary in the Blink App. Under this policy you will enjoy full comprehensive cover which takes into account:

✔ Loss or damage to your car caused:

- in an accident
- by animals other than your own domestic animals
- by theft, hijacking, attempted theft or attempted hijacking
- by fire or explosion
- by earthquake, storm, hail, flood or snow (this also includes damage to glass)

✔ Liability to Other Parties

You or members of your household, who were authorised to drive your car, are covered for legal liability of up to R5 million following a car accident whilst driving the insured car that causes damage to other peoples' property. This includes legal costs that someone else can claim from you and which we agree to pay in order to settle or defend a claim against you.

To be covered for liability, the accident must involve:

- the insured car, or
- any vehicle, motorcycle, trailer or caravan being towed by the insured car, or
- a vehicle that is not on the policy, but which you, the regular driver or any members of your household, personally drove, as long as you/he/she have not hired it, do not own it or have it under a hire purchase agreement. The Insurer is not responsible for damage to the vehicle you/he/she drove, unless that vehicle is specifically insured for loss or damage with the Insurer.

Liability to other parties excludes:

- Liability for death, bodily injury and/or emotional shock
 - Liability for death and bodily injury is covered by the Road Accident Fund within South Africa. When travelling outside South Africa, you should consider purchasing cover for liability for death and bodily injury. Country specific cover is often compulsory and available when entering other countries.

- Liability for loss of or damage to:
 - Property owned by you or any members of your household.
 - The vehicle not insured on this policy that you or members of your household drove at the time the incident occurred.
 - The object/item being towed by the insured car.
- Liability where your car claim was rejected, therefore any incident that causes damage to other people's property where the claim for loss of or damage to the car itself is not covered.

Scenario: If your claim for damage to your own car is rejected and you have caused damage to another party's property, the other party's damage won't be covered either.

Benefits

In the event of a valid claim for the car itself, the following is covered up to the amount stated on your Cover Summary:

✓ Emergency Alert

- The Blink App offers the ability to detect a car crash and will notify us if you're in an accident. We will attempt to contact you to find out if you need assistance and to arrange for towing if necessary. If we detect that it was a serious crash and we can't get hold of you, we will dispatch an ambulance to the location of the crash.
- While we make use of the best technology to ensure that we are alerted of all serious crashes, it could happen that a crash goes undetected. This could happen for a number of reasons, such as your phone losing signal or being on battery saver mode. The Insurer, its employees or service providers, will not accept any liability or be held liable for any damage, death or bodily injury, directly or indirectly caused by the Blink App's inability to detect a crash.
- You must read this policy document in conjunction with the Terms of Use and the FAQs on the App for the terms and conditions that apply to the Emergency Alert feature.

✓ Towing, recovery and storage

- This refers to reasonable towing and storage costs to tow and store your car at the nearest place of safety following an insured event. Towing outside the South African border is excluded.
- Only our approved towing operators may tow your car after an insured event. Authorisation for towing must be obtained from our MiHelp emergency call centre to ensure the safe removal and storage of your car and that you don't incur the towing costs.
- Wreckage removal in the case that the insured car needs to be recovered from a site before it can be towed. Our approved towing operator must be used.

✓ The replacement fees for lost or stolen keys and remotes, as well as the replacement of locks and reprogramming of the associated vehicle systems.

The excess payable for the replacement of locks and keys will be the standard excess for the vehicle noted in your Cover Summary.

Optional Add-on Cover

The following is only covered if you have selected it and it is reflected on your Cover Summary together with the applicable premium.

1 Car hire

Following an incident for which you have a valid claim, Blink will facilitate the provision of a hired car, for the insured, when your car:

- is damaged and being repaired
- is damaged and not drivable
- is stolen or hijacked

Important to Note: Where the damage falls under Minor Repairs cover, car hire is excluded.

Whilst driving the rental car, you will be responsible for all the usual costs associated with renting a car, which includes:

- a refundable fuel and e-toll deposit, the running costs as well as any collection and delivery fees outside a 25km radius.
- the excess in the event of a claim for loss of or damage to the hired car.

The hired car is available to you whilst your car is being repaired or for the period that your claim is being finalised. The maximum number of days you will be able to make use of the hired car is noted on your Cover Summary.

2 Vehicle extras

We understand that unless you bought a car brand new, you are not always 100% sure which features and extras came with the model specification of your car and which of those were bought as extras at the dealership. Secondly, we understand that you don't necessarily know what the value of each of those vehicle extras are. To make it easy for you, our cover for vehicle extras is based on a percentage of the insured value of your car and we do not require you to specify individual vehicle extras or their values.

At claims stage, we will verify the existence and value of the extras on the insured vehicle. The maximum amount we will pay, in the event of a valid claim, for loss of or damage to vehicle extras is the percentage noted on your Cover Summary or the actual value of your vehicle extras, whichever is lower.

Scenario: Your car is worth R100 000 and your car's extras are covered for 10% of Retail Value. That means you have cover for up to R10 000 worth of car extras. If your car's extras are only worth R5000, then you'll have sufficient cover and when your car is stolen or written off, the R5000 for extras will be covered. If your car's extras turn out to be worth R20 000, then we'll only pay a maximum of R10 000 for extras, when your car is stolen or written off.

3 Credit Shortfall

When the amount you owe in terms of a finance agreement (as defined in the National Credit Act) with a finance house exceeds the insured value, we will pay the shortfall in the event of a valid claim. Your car must:

- be uneconomical to repair
- have been stolen or hijacked and not recovered

The purpose of Credit Shortfall is to cover the shortfall between the insured value of the car and the loan amount and not to cover additional once off charges.

As such, the following will not be covered under Credit Shortfall:

- the excess on your car claim
- arrear installments due and interest on them
- any early settlement penalties or additional finance charges

- any refundable amounts added to your finance agreement over and above the purchase price of the car
- insurance premiums, motor warranties and maintenance programmes, which must be refunded to you by the company that administers the policy or warranty
- any amount noted on the finance agreement for service and/or delivery
- the credit shortfall on car sound equipment or non-standard vehicle extras. This will only be covered if you selected to cover vehicle extras and up to the amount noted on your Cover Summary

4 Minor Repairs Cover

This value-added cover is for minor repairs of passenger vehicles, minibuses, and light delivery vehicles (LDV) with a gross mass not exceeding 3 500kg within the Republic of South Africa. This will cover the following eventualities, caused by day-to-day driving, when you obtain Blink's prior consent:

- Minor chips, dents and light scratches not ripped or torn, of any part of the body panel and/or plastic/vinyl/hardened rubber trim.
- Windscreen chips not exceeding an area of 10 millimetres in diameter.
 - Where any part of the chip has cracked beyond the chip, the damage will be excluded from Minor Repairs Cover and a Glass claim under your comprehensive car cover will need to be made instead.
 - Where the chip impairs the driver's view, the damage will be excluded from Minor Repairs Cover and a Glass claim (under your comprehensive car cover) will need to be made instead.
- Rim/Alloy wheel scratches.
- Damage to rims/alloy wheels and tyres

Claim Payments

This value-added cover is for minor repairs of passenger vehicles, minibuses, and light delivery vehicles (LDV) with a gross mass not exceeding 3 500kg within the Republic of South Africa. This will cover the following eventualities, caused by day-to-day driving, when you obtain Blink's prior consent:

- We will indemnify you in respect of a valid claim to repair your cars' tyre and/or rim/alloy wheel through a repairer of our choice or;

- pay you cash in accordance with the amount on an invoice for the repairs carried out by an approved supplier or repairer of our choice.
- The total cost of repairs must not exceed the maximum claim amount as noted on your Cover Summary.

Important Limits

- Your Cover Summary reflects the maximum repair costs per claim and the maximum annual claim amount, which is the maximum claim amount (inclusive of VAT) that we will pay for all valid claims (i.e., any claim with repair costs exceeding R5000 is not indemnifiable).

Scenario: Your car is worth R100 000 and your car's extras are covered for 10% of Retail Value. That means you have cover for up to R10 000 worth of car extras. If your car's extras are only worth R5000, then you'll have sufficient cover and when your car is stolen or written off, the R5000 for extras will be covered. If your car's extras turn out to be worth R20 000, then we'll only pay a maximum of R10 000 for extras, when your car is stolen or written off.

- From this amount the excess and any dual insurance, betterment (wear and tear) or depreciation will be deducted.

Important to Note:

- Any damage that occurred before the cover commencement date or in the first 30 days from the commencement of cover is not covered.
- Car hire is excluded when your car is damaged and being repaired for Minor Repairs

Minor Repairs Cover does not cover:

- Damage that in our discretion is deemed to have been incurred as a result of a collision or other accident and not as a result of day-to-day driving
- Damage falling outside the period of insurance

- moth, vermin, insects, animal, pests, termites
- the use of the insured property for, or in connection with, the commission of any offence.
- This includes any incident relating to obtaining, using or soliciting narcotics
- Damage directly or indirectly caused by, related to or in consequence of:
 - civil commotion, labour disturbances or public disorder
 - war or war- like acts

- Towing
- Carrying fare-paying passengers (like taxi or shuttle services),
- Driving instruction,

When Your Cover Starts and Ends

When Your Cover Starts and Ends

Cover Start date

- The policy will only start if the first premium is received by the Insurer.
- Your cover starts when the policy starts, the policy start date is shown on your Cover Summary in the Blink App.
- Any changes you make to your policy or cover is effective from the date agreed to between you and the Insurer. The effective date is shown on your Cover Summary.

Changes to cover

- If we make any changes, we will notify you 31 days before the effective date of the change. We will communicate the notice of change to you in the Blink App, by email or to your cell phone number (via SMS or WhatsApp).
- You are able to make changes in the Blink App at any time.

Cancellation

- You may cancel your policy at any time with immediate effect.
- We may cancel your policy by giving you 31 days notice by email.
- We will only cancel your policy, with immediate effect, should you fail to comply with our reasonable instructions or requests, commit fraud and/or are found to have been dishonest in relation to a claim. In this case you may forfeit your cashback.
- If you do not pay your monthly premium for 3 months in a row, your policy will cancel automatically from midnight on the last day for which premium was actually received.

Refunds in the event of cancellation

- If a premium has been paid for any period beyond the date of cancellation, we will refund the relevant portion of the premium less any administrative costs and cashbacks owed to us, unless a claim has been submitted for that period.
- If there are any cashbacks due to you at the time you cancel your policy, the cashbacks due will be paid to you as long as you have confirmed your actual odometer reading as and when requested to do so in the Blink App before cancelling your policy.

Payment of Premiums and Cashback

Payment of Premiums and Cashback

Payment of premium

- Your premium, as shown in your Cover Summary, must be paid monthly in advance and will provide you with cover for a month from your preferred collection date.
- We will attempt to collect your premium from the bank account specified on the Blink App. Should the collection date fall on a public holiday or a Sunday, the premium will be collected on the working day before or on the first working day thereafter.
- Your cover period will not change even if we debit you on a different date.

Scenario: Your cover period runs from the 25th of the month to the 24th of the next month because your collection date is on the 25th of each month. In December we might collect your premium on the 24th because the 25th is a public holiday. This does not change the cover period; the cover period is still from the 25th of December to the 24th of January.

- If your premium collection is unsuccessful, we may attempt to collect your next premiums before your preferred collection date to ensure successful payment and to ensure that you enjoy cover for the month.

Non-payment of premium

- If we do not receive your premium, you will not have any cover for the period for which you did not pay.
- However, you will have 15 days' grace from the collection date to make arrangements for premium to be collected for that cover period. If you reversed the premium at your bank, it is your responsibility to make contact with us to make arrangements for the debit order to be resubmitted as we will not automatically attempt to collect the premium again for that cover period. This grace period will only apply from the second month of cover onwards.
- During the grace period, you will still be covered if the unpaid premium is paid before the grace period expires.

Cashback

- We offer a distance-based cashback. If you drive less than the monthly distance threshold of 2,500 km, you will qualify for the monthly cashback that is displayed in your Blink App. The less you drive, the more cashback you get.

How does it work?

- You pay a full premium at the start of each cover period. Based on the distance you drove during that period, we will calculate your cashback after the last day of the cover period.

Scenario: You drove less than 2,500 km in a month and cashback of R200 is paid out to you.

These amounts are for illustrative purposes only. Your cashback will depend on your premium and monthly mileage.

Start/end of the month refers to your payment cycle and not necessarily to a calendar month.

- The Blink App uses telematics technology to track how much you drive each month. You can view this on our App so you can keep track of the monthly cashback that's coming your way!
- The cashback is estimated on the total distance driven, as recorded by the Blink App.
- For every cover period, you will be required to verify the distance recorded in the Blink App against your car's actual odometer reading. Once confirmation is received, we will recalculate your cashback and pay the cashback into your bank account within 7 days of receiving confirmation from you.

Scenario: What happens if there's a discrepancy?

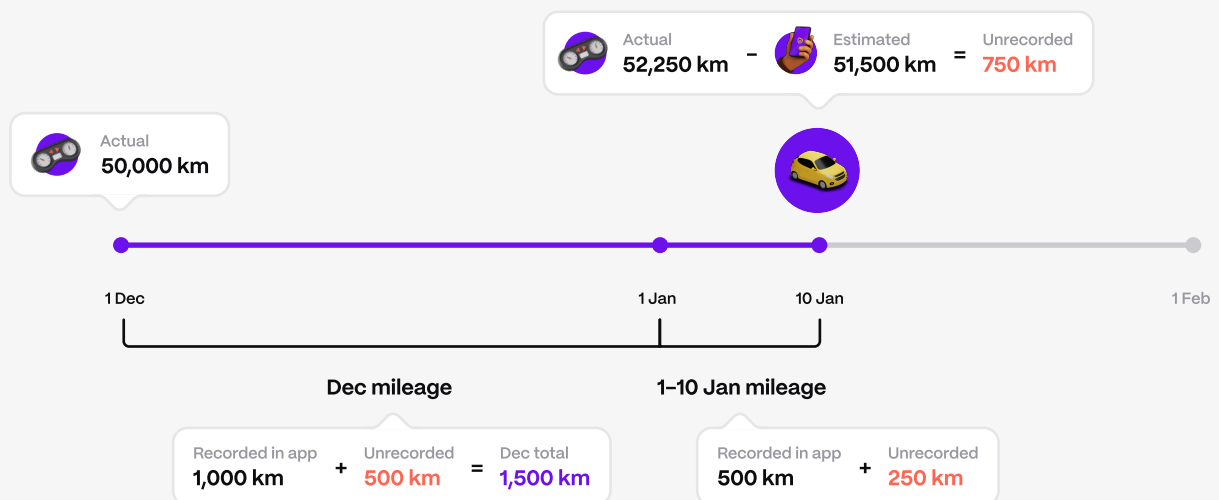

On 1 December, you confirm your odometer reading as 50,000 km. In the Blink App we record cumulative trips of 1,000 kms in December. From 1 January to 10 January, we record cumulative trips of 500 kms in the App. Our estimated odometer reading as of 10 January is 51,500km. On 10 January, you provide the actual odometer reading of 52,250 km.

The additional 750 kms that were not recorded in the App will be allocated over each period in proportion to the mileage recorded in each period. Here's an example of how to work out the December proportion:

The total mileage for December, therefore, is 1,500 km which will be used to recalculate your cashback.

- The Blink App can differentiate between car trips and trips in other modes of transport such as trains, bicycles, airplanes or golf carts.
- The Blink App tries to distinguish between trips in the insured car vs trips where you were a passenger in someone else's car, but there will be cases where the App cannot correctly identify the difference. It is your responsibility to check the trip log in the Blink App and to correct any incorrectly classified trips.
- The Blink App may prompt you from time to time to upload a photo of your car's odometer reading. In this instance, your cashbacks for that cover period will not be paid until we have received a photo of the car's odometer reading.
- Any pending cashback for which the mileage for that cover period has not been confirmed by you, either in the App or by sending us a photo of your odometer, whichever is applicable, will expire after 12 months.
- Once a year, around 2 months before the policy anniversary, the Blink App will also request you to upload a photo of the car's odometer reading. This allows us to recalibrate the actual distance travelled in that year to the distance measured on the Blink App during the year. If it is found that you received more cashback than what was due to you, based on your odometer reading, the Insurer has the right to withhold future cashbacks to claw-back the incorrect cashback paid to you.

Some other important things to take note of

- The cashback cannot be paid into a different bank account other than the one you specified in the Blink App.
- If we did not receive your premium for a particular period of cover, no cashback will be paid at the end of that period irrespective of the distance driven during that period.
- If we received your premium and as a result you enjoyed cover for that period, and you then reverse the premium at your bank after a cashback was paid, we have the right to withhold future cashbacks to claw-back the undue cashback paid to you.

Scenario: We successfully collected your monthly premium of R1000 on the 1st of September for the cover period 1 September – 30 September. On the 2nd of October, we pay your cashback of R400 based on your monthly distance driven in September. On the 3rd of October you reverse the September debit order at your bank. In this case, you have not paid the premium for the month of September and we have given you R400 back in cashbacks – you owe the Blink by MiWay R400. Let's assume we successfully collected your monthly premium of R1000 on the 1st of October for the cover period 1 October – 31 October and that at the end of October you would have qualified for cashback of R300 based on your monthly distance driven in October. In this case we will offset the R300 cashback against the R400 you owe us and will continue withholding cashback until the outstanding balance is zero at which point you will start to earn cashbacks again.

Claims

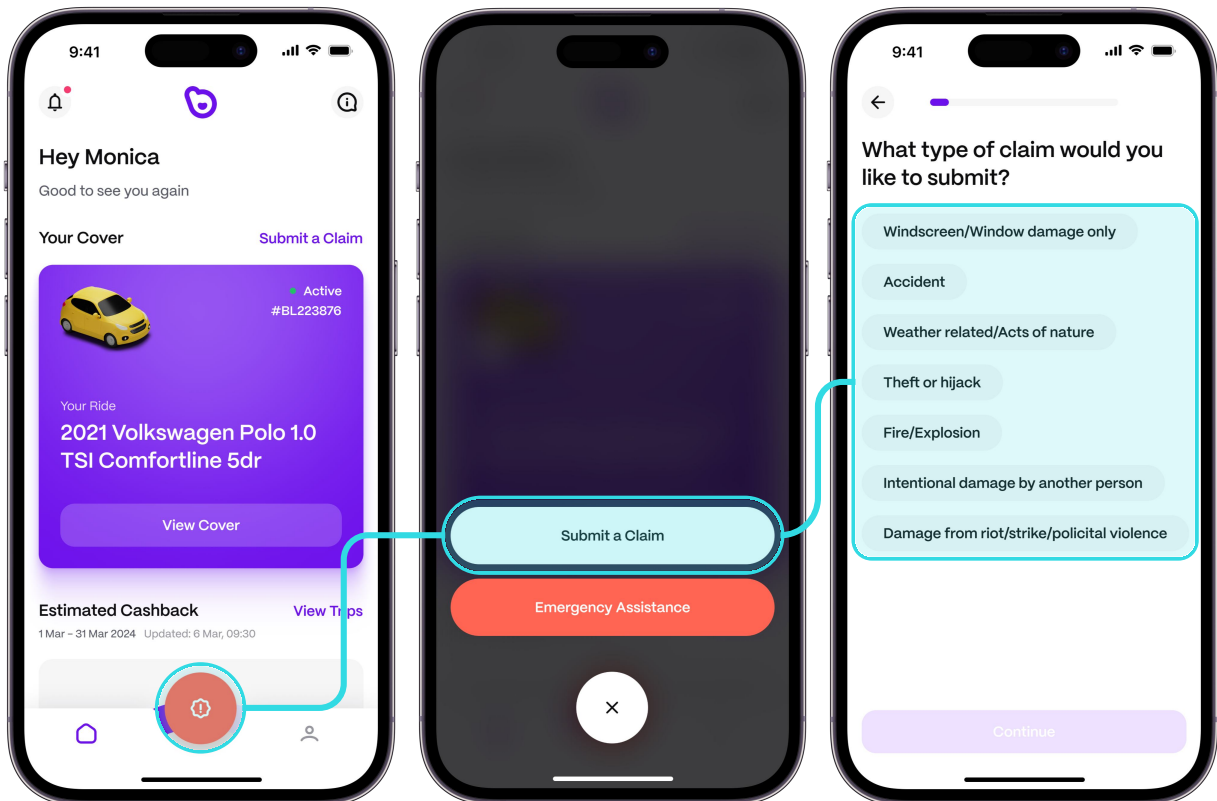

Claims

How to claim

You can submit a claim on the Blink app by tapping the red "incident button".

You can find more information about the claims process and what we require from you on our website and App.

Excess payable

- The excess is the first amount payable by you on any valid claim. Every time you have a valid claim in terms of this policy, whether the incident was your fault or not, you need to pay an excess as noted on your Cover Summary.
- Any excess payable by you is non-refundable and although we will try our best to recover the excess from the other party in cases where the incident was not your fault, the recovery is not guaranteed.

- If the claimed amount, that is the cost to repair the damage or replace the car, is less than the excess payable, then we will not pay the claim since the damage falls within your excess.

Claim payments

- We will indemnify you in respect of a valid claim by either paying you in cash, replacing or repairing the car through a supplier or repairer of our choice or any combination thereof.
- If your car is financed, the finance house will be paid first.
- If parts are not available and this delays the repairs process, the Insurer cannot be held responsible and will not indemnify you for the inconvenience it causes you or money you lose or for any liability you may incur because of the delay.
- If the actual distance travelled (based on the odometer reading of your car) exceeds the recorded distance travelled (based on trips logged in the App and as confirmed by you in the App) by more than 10% at the time of a claim, we have the right to reduce your claim payment. We will calculate what the cashback amounts should have been over the period and compare it to the actual cashbacks that were paid out.

Scenario: Let's say the difference is 15%, meaning you got an additional 15% of your premium paid back to you, which wouldn't have been the case if we had your accurate mileage. In this case, the claim amount will be reduced by the same percentage i.e. 15%.

Important time limits

To avoid a claim being rejected, you must:

- report your claim, or any incident that may lead to a claim even if you do not want to claim for it, to us as soon as possible, but not later than 30 days after the incident

Scenario: If you have been involved in an accident, but have no damages to your own car, you must still report the incident as the other party may decide to claim from you or your insurance.

- report the incident to the police immediately or as soon as reasonably possible after becoming aware of the incident. This relates to any lost items and loss or damage caused by theft, attempted theft, hijacking, attempted hijacking, fire, intentional acts or a collision (if required by law)
- send a summons from a third party through to us within 10 days after receiving it. We will not be responsible for any legal costs, interest or additional damages where the third party obtained judgment due to a delay on your side in sending through the summons

- provide us with any documents that you receive in connection with any claim against you, within 10 days after receiving it

Scenario: If you receive a letter of demand from another party, you must forward the letter to the Insurer within 10 days for us to attend to the matter.

- start with the repairs or replace any item(s) you have claimed for within 6 months from the date that your claim was authorised

Fraudulent acts

- If you, or anyone acting on your behalf, submits a claim or any information or documentation relating to a claim, which is in any way fraudulent, dishonest or inflated, no benefits under this policy will be paid. We will reject the whole claim and all premiums paid will not be refunded. We will cancel the entire policy retrospectively to the reported incident date, or the actual incident date, whichever date is the earliest.

Scenario: If we receive new information at any stage and it is found that you were dishonest on a previous claim, the previous claim will be rejected, and your policy will be cancelled from the previous reported incident date.

Dual insurance

If you have any other insurance policies insuring the same car for the same cover, you will only be paid proportionately on a valid claim. You will still be liable to pay the full excess applicable on the claim and no premium refund will be made.

Proof of ownership

We may, when reasonable, ask you to prove ownership of the car you are claiming for. If you are claiming for damage to your car, you need to make the car available for inspection in order to prove the extent and nature of the damage.

Acting on your rights

- When you submit a claim, we may act on your rights or obligations against other people or entities to recover costs or to defend any possible claim against you. We will act on the version of events provided by you when submitting your claim. If it is found that your version differs from the truth, the Insurer will not be responsible for any legal costs, interest or additional damages and may recover any such costs already incurred from you.
- You may not institute and/or proceed with any litigation or action to recover your excess payment from a third party as this could negatively influence any claims that we might have against the third party.

Scenario: If you are involved in an accident that was not your fault, the Insurer will automatically try to recover your excess and the money that we paid to repair or replace your car from the third party. If you made a personal arrangement in the meantime with the other party to recover your excess and by doing that prejudiced the Insurer's rights to recover its costs, you will be liable towards the Insurer with regards to the prejudice it suffered as a result of your actions.

Your Responsibilities

Your Responsibilities

Complete the following steps

To ensure that you have continuous cover and to avoid a claim being rejected, you must download the Blink App and complete the following steps in the App:

1 Self-inspection

- An inspection of the car is required for us to identify any pre-existing damage to the car. You do not need to go to an inspection centre, instead you can complete the self-inspection process in the Blink App when it is convenient for you within the period noted on your Cover Summary.

If you did not complete the self-inspection by the due date stated in the Blink App, you will not be eligible for any cashbacks until the self-inspection is completed.

Based on the pictures and information submitted in the self-inspection process, we may decide not to cover your car. In this case we will cancel your policy from the inception date and refund any premiums we have received. In such cases, your cover is voided as if the policy was never incepted.

2 Complete the contract with the tracking company if we require you to install a tracking device

- The tracking requirement for your specific car was explained to you when you took out the policy. If you are required to install a tracking device, you can complete this process and schedule the fitment of the device in the Blink App.

3 Enable the appropriate permissions on your phone

- In order for the Blink App to send a crash alert to us you need to give the Blink App permission to use certain phone features. This includes access to your phone's GPS (Location Services), accelerometer and gyroscope (Motion & Fitness or Activity Recognition) as well as Bluetooth. This allows us to dispatch emergency services when you are in an accident and to monitor your trips and calculate your cashback, every month.

If you do not at all times allow these permissions on your phone, we will not be able to detect when you are in an accident and you would not qualify for the monthly cashback.

- You have a responsibility to Blink to ensure that your mobile device has sufficient data and that the latest version of the Blink App is installed, to allow the Blink App to function optimally.

4 Pay your premiums and remember to update your banking details on the Blink App if they change

5 Ensure that you or any person with authorised access to your car or anyone acting on your behalf adheres to the terms and conditions of this policy.

Scenario: If one of your friends drives your car whilst being under the influence of alcohol or drugs and as a result causes an accident you will have no cover.

6 Give us and the authorities true and complete information at all times, because we act on the information you give us.

7 Take all reasonable steps to prevent or minimise foreseen loss, damage, death, injury or liability.

*Scenario: If the speed you were travelling at the time of an accident was over the posted speed limit for the road you were travelling on and is considered reckless given the specific road and the conditions at the time, we may not pay your claim.
Scenario: If you were in an accident and you continue to drive your car while being alerted by warning lights on the car's instrument cluster which results in further damage to the engine, you may be covered for the initial damage caused by the impact, but not for the damage caused to the engine as a result of driving the car after the incident.*

8 Not admit any fault or agree to any settlement offer without our written consent

Scenario: If you are involved in a multi-vehicle accident you must not agree to pay for the other party's damages as that could negatively affect our processes of settlement or recovery

9 Follow or act on all our reasonable instructions and/or requests

Scenario: If we ask you to complete any document to enable us to validate a claim, you need to do so within the reasonable time we'll provide you.

10 Get our consent before doing any repairs which are the subject of a claim

9 Misrepresentation, misdescription or non-disclosure

- You must ensure that all the information supplied by you, or anyone acting on your behalf, is correct and complete as any incorrect information may affect the validity of this contract or prejudice any claim you might have under this policy.

- Misrepresenting, incorrectly describing or failing to tell us of any important fact or circumstances relating to this policy, could result in your policy being cancelled or invalidated from the start date and any claim under this policy will not be paid.
 - Where the policy is invalidated (voided) from the start, all premiums received less any cost incurred by us will be refunded.
 - You must inform us immediately of any changes to information noted on your Cover Summary or any changes in relation to the terms and conditions we communicated with you. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - security devices installed
- Scenario: If your premium is calculated on the basis that you have a tracking device in your car and you cancel the contract with the tracking company, you need to inform us as this could affect the outcome of future claims.*
- convictions for offences related to dishonesty or fraud
 - the use of the car
 - the regular driver of the car
